The Topaz invites you in with its friendly features and aesthetically appealing design. It all starts with the covered porch, side load garage, and tall windows. Enter the home to an elongated entry with a double door office on one side and the dining room on the other. The great room showcases a center fireplace with access and views out to the covered patio. The kitchen is one of the home's highlights with its farmhouse layout where the prep station and sink look out to the backyard, and the elongated island works as both a dining or buffet area, depending on your living needs. The master suite features views out the back and a gorgeous master bath with a soaker tub, dual vanities, large walk-in shower, and plenty of closet space. Best of all, The Topaz is part of The Estates at Dry Creek Ranch, which features acreage homesites with estate-like homes and the best in new home finishes.
