Call for Price

The Ashford is a single-level home with a long entry and interior courtyard that create a strong sense of arrival. The great room, dining area, and chef's kitchen anchor the center of the home, arranged to feel connected while each space keeps its own character and functionality. A dual-sided fireplace links the great room and vaulted flex room, bringing warmth and definition to both. The chef's kitchen is perfect for entertaining, with wraparound countertops, a large center island, and both butler's and walk-in pantries. Several multi-slide glass doors line the back of the home, opening to the covered patio and extending the living space outdoors.

The primary suite is tucked away from the rest of the home, with a vaulted ceiling and a bath that includes a fireplace, freestanding tub, large tiled shower, and spacious walk-in closet. A guest suite with its own bath and walk-in closet provides privacy, while additional secondary bedrooms and an office give the home flexibility for a range of needs.
