The Alpine is a new two-story floorplan offered in Dry Creek Ranch and River Park Estates, with 4,105 square feet of living space and a generous 4-car garage. Step inside and you're welcomed by high ceilings, a dedicated office with double glass doors, and an entry that ushers you into the rest of the home. The great room makes a strong first impression with its dramatic open-to-below design, anchored by a platform fireplace. A wall of windows keeps the space bright and open, frames backyard views, and creates easy access to the covered patio.

Steps away, the dining area and chef's kitchen extend the main living area, complete with a large center island, wraparound countertops, and a massive walk-in pantry with room for everyday storage and entertaining essentials. Tucked away for privacy, the primary suite feels spacious and secluded. Large windows give the space a grand feel, while the luxurious bath includes a tiled shower, soaker tub, dual vanities, and a roomy walk-in closet built for two.

Upstairs, a spacious loft adds another flexible living space, complemented by a dedicated storage room for members and guests alike. Three ensuite bedrooms round out the second story, offering comfort and privacy for family
